Disclaimer

The Jamie McVeigh Foundation is a small Hatfield based charity that aims to support local young people overcome financial barriers to joining sports teams.

Funding is raised through charitable events, supported and run by local people.

Our aim is to be transparent about the process for accessing the funding. The process is detailed in the Jamie McVeigh Funding Framework.

The Foundation works with appropriate adults to support young people in joining sports clubs.

- The Foundation does NOT work directly with young people or their parents.
- The Foundation does NOT hold on record any personal information about the young people it supports.
- The Foundation will NOT share any personal information about the young people it supports unless there is concern about safety or risk to a young person in which case appropriate information will be shared.
- The Foundation cannot take responsibility for a young person's suitability to join a sports team.
- The Foundation takes in good faith the information provided in writing by the appropriate adult.
- The Foundation cannot take responsibility for the behavior of any individual beyond the Foundation.

The Jamie McVeigh Funding Sub Group decision on the funding is final. There is no option to appeal the decision.

If funding is not successful, applications are welcome the following sporting season (so not in the same 12 month period) if circumstances change.

The funding will be agreed, based on individual merit and as a single application to cover a 12 month period only. A successful funding reward should not be relied on as a continued source or expected in future.

The Jamie McVeigh Funding Framework is reviewed annually.

The Jamie McVeigh Funding Sub-Group Members:
Steve McVeigh, Sue Pearman, Lucy Bailey.

The Foundation welcome questions, comments and compliments by email to info.JMF@yahoo.com
